

A Workshop on: Using your Professional/ Business Skills in Mission

Opportunity beckons Christian professionals to both developing and restricted-access countries. Engaging relationally, they can be a Gospel witness and strengthen local believers.

This workshop will help participants navigate the possibilities and challenges. Workshop leaders have diverse experience across the globe:

A ran a retail solar business, equipped entrepreneurs and farmers restoring land; G worked in an engineering capacity -building NGO; P guided professionals working in restricted access nations, S uses business skills to support new gospel ministries.
